

P A R T 1

A Life in Letters

In His Own Words

“There are three gifts I have received, for which I can never be grateful enough: first, my Catholic faith; second, my monastic vocation; third, the calling to be a writer and share my beliefs with others.”

—“To My Dear Friend,” ca. 1963